MOVING FORWARD IN HOPE: OPEN PARISH MEETING WEDNESDAY 28th FEBRUARY AT 7:00PM IN THE PARISH CENTRE

In January Bishop Ray gave us his Pastoral Letter inviting us into a period of reflection and discussion on the way forward for our parishes and diocese. He sees our parishes as places where the people live out their faith in four ways: through community spirit; our compassion for people in need; our prayer, liturgy and sacraments and in handing on the faith to the next generation.

With this in mind he invites us to come together to reflect on and discuss the following questions:

1. When the number of priests in full time ministry in our parish is reduced or when they are asked to take responsibility for neighbouring parish communities: what aspects of the life of our parish could you take responsibility for going forward? Are there people among us here who could take on leadership roles in the future?
2. Where do we see opportunities for cooperation with neighbouring parishes in our area? In what areas of parish life do you see scope for sharing of resources and personnel going forward? How are you willing to be involved in these changes to the way we currently operate as an individual parish?
3. Given the changes that will come for our priests in the near future what ministries and presence would you most desire from them, where possible?

At the meeting we will engage in prayerful reflection, listening to one another, and dialogue around these three questions and the responses from the meeting will be forwarded to the diocese to assist Bishop Ray for future planning.

RECENT BAPTISMS: With great joy we welcome:

REMEMBERING THOSE IN AREAS OF WAR AND CONFLICT.

On Saturday Feb 24th we are remembering that it is two years since the commencement of the war in Ukraine. As it enters its third year, we continue to pray for the people of Ukraine and for those in all parts of the world experiencing conflict.

Reflection on a World Where Hope Seems Dim

Dear God, the world seems so dark and foreboding. Where are the signs of hope? What are you calling us to do? Wars, uprisings, displacements, hunger, poverty, and disease continue to claim victims by the millions around the world each year. Our ears do not want to hear their stories and our eyes do not want to see their plight because the suffering and destruction is so massive and cruel. In our hearts and minds there is a desire to help somehow, but the crisis seem so overwhelming that we shake our heads in dismay and we wonder what the point is for us even to attempt to be witnesses for healing and hope in this hellish morass.

We ask God to open our eyes that we may see glimpses of truth you have for us. Help us to follow the path of Jesus, the Suffering Servant. Give us the courage to be willing to walk alongside the victims of injustice here at home as well as abroad. Help us to seek ways to light candles of hope, however small, through our words, our deeds, and our prayers, to encourage our sisters and brothers to hold onto the faith in spite of the pain and suffering they are facing. And help those of us who are among the fortunate ones, who have enough bread to eat, good health, and who live in relative peace, to open our heart to learn from our sisters and brothers who are living lives of grace and forgiveness in the difficult circumstances which surround them. O God, help us to light one candle rather than to curse the darkness. We pray this in the name of Jesus, who knows what being a light in this dark world is all about.
