CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Thanks to the liturgy group, the sacristan and the local community for helping us celebrate Corpus Christi in Curraheen so well last weekend. We recognise the hard work of so many volunteers who prepared the church and grounds, and who assisted in so many ways before, during and after the ceremony.

We appreciate the presence of our First Communicants, Altar Servers, Guard of Honour, Canopy Bearers and the various local groups who marched in the procession.

Thanks to all who helped with the liturgy, the singing, the stewarding, the refreshments and the tidy-up.

Thanks also to our kind neighbours who allowed the use of a field for parking and to An Garda Síochána for their invaluable assistance.
